

Emotional Trauma Workshop SURVIVORS I

Healing Childhood Relational Trauma

WHO IS THIS WORKSHOP RIGHT FOR?

Anyone who is feeling “stuck” or needs help understanding and letting go of past trauma or hurts to experience freedom

ALL ABOUT THIS WORKSHOP

Based on Meadows Senior Fellow Pia Mellody’s pioneering work in her book Facing Codependence, Survivors I explores the origins that fuel self-defeating behaviors such as addictions, trauma, mood disorders, and troubling relationships. Childhood wounding up to age 18 is approached with compassion, and skills are taught in order to re-parent yourself. The primary focus of this workshop is processing and releasing the negative messages and emotions that were rooted in painful experiences from the past, allowing the freedom to embody your authentic self. Participants will:

- Discover the impact their childhood experiences have had on their self-esteem, boundary system, level of dependency, and ability to be moderate in all things.
- Explore the less-than-nurturing and/or abusive recollected childhood experiences with a focus on the accompanying associated feelings and imprinted messages, and consequent self-defeating patterns.
- Re-examine their childhood relationships in a safe and nurturing environment to release painful emotions and begin the process of re-parenting their parts that have been shamed, neglected, or abandoned, reclaiming their personal power.
